

Location: Fralin Auditorium

Seminar 11:15 AM – 12:15 PM, Refreshments 10:30 AM

1/20/17	Stella Schons - Smallholder land clearing and the forest code in the Brazilian Amazon	Virginia Tech, FREC
1/27/17	Derek Dougherty - Progressive operational forest management, advanced pine genetics, and the relative economics	Dougherty and Dougherty Forest Services, Inc.
2/3/17	Carrie Jensen - Headwater stream length dynamics across four physiographic provinces of the Appalachian highlands Charlie Neaves III - Site and tree productivity of loblolly pine 24 years after wet weather harvesting and site preparation in the lower Atlantic coastal plain	Virginia Tech, FREC
2/10/17	Ethan Barker - Tree stump volume estimation of common tree species in the eastern United States Corey Green – Evaluation of Acoustic and Laser Rangefinders Under Various Field Conditions	Virginia Tech, FREC
2/17/17	Dr. Carol Franco - Global Climate Change Policy: Why should we care?	Virginia Tech, FREC
2/24/17	Benjamin Ahlswede - Atmospheric feedbacks of loblolly pine and switchgrass Chandler Dangle - Effectiveness assessment of forestry best management practices for stream crossings among the physiographic regions of Virginia	Virginia Tech, FREC
3/3/17	Morgan Schulte – Hydrologic drivers of peat, vegetation, and fire: The Great Dismal Swamp Joshua Rady – Managing Forest for Climate	Virginia Tech, FREC
3/17/17	Dr. Allesandro Ossola - From the litter up and the sky down: Perspectives on urban forest structure and eco-hydrological processes	US EPA
3/24/17	Dr. Katherine Calvin – Impacts of Bioenergy on Land-Use	Joint Global Change Research Institute
3/31/17	Dr. John Groninger – TBD	Southern Illinois University - Carbondale
4/7/17	Edward Russell - The Effects of Manipulation of Water and Nutrient Availability in Loblolly Pine Production Ray Ludwig - The Effects of Draining the Swamp: Investigating the role of hydrology on vegetative communities at the Great Dismal Swamp	Virginia Tech, FREC
4/14/17	Dr. Kaarsten Turner-Dalby – TBD	Forest Land Group
4/21/17	Neila Cole - Characterizing Log Truck Accidents in the Southeastern United States Amy Blood - Remotely characterizing urban forest structure	Virginia Tech, FREC
