

GLOBAL CHANGE CENTER FELLOWSHIP IN SCIENCE POLICY
WASHINGTON SEMESTER

Please note: Science and engineering students applying for a Global Change Center (GCC) Fellowship do not need to apply to the School of Public & International Affairs (SPIA) separately. Your application will be forwarded to SPIA. Also, students receiving a fellowship are required to live in housing provided by the SPIA program in the Gallery Apartment Complex.

Name _____

Campus Address _____

Campus Phone _____

Email Address _____

Overall GPA _____

Major _____

Minor(s) _____

Current Academic Level: Sophomore ____ Junior ____ Senior ____

1. Briefly state the type of internship experience you would prefer. That is, with what type of agency or organization would you like to work? (limit 100 words)

2. Personal statement of professional aspirations - what are your professional career plans? (limit 200 words)

3. Submit a 1-2 page resume with this application.

4. List two faculty members who will serve as references for you for the program and ask them to provide a letter of reference by the application deadline. Faculty should send letters directly to Jessica Zielske, GCC Program Coordinator, at jcoker@vt.edu.

1. _____

2. _____

All application materials should be submitted electronically to Jessica Zielske, GCC Program Coordinator, jcoker@vt.edu by December 1, 2019.